

ESOL Instructor

IRIS (Integrated Refugee & Immigrant Services, Inc., www.irisct.org) is a dynamic refugee resettlement agency with offices in New Haven and Hartford, CT. IRIS serves people from all over the world who have fled persecution in their home countries to start new lives and become self-sufficient, contributing members of their new communities. While IRIS has traditionally focused on helping refugees, it is increasingly serving our undocumented neighbors and other immigrants as well.

Job Description:

New Haven Adult and Continuing Education is seeking part-time ESOL instructors to teach beginning level classes to female refugees at IRIS (Integrated Refugee and Immigrant Services), one of our satellite locations. In-person classes are offered in downtown New Haven Monday through Friday mornings. ESOL instructors will provide classroom instruction in literacy, speaking, reading and writing in English, as well as preparing students to function confidently in society with life and basic job skills. Interested candidates should have experience and interest in teaching beginning level students. Experience teaching pre-literate adults and working with refugees is preferred. CT state certification 088 is required for this position but all interested candidates are encouraged to apply. For more information or to apply for this position, please contact Erica Walden, New Haven Adult and Continuing Education ESOL Program Facilitator (ERICA.WALDEN@new-haven.k12.ct.us) or Debra Riding, IRIS Director of Education (driding@irisct.org).
